What went Well:

Richmond House Sports Day. A great day was had by all. Thanks to JS for organising and all the staff and students for taking part.

Race For Life. Congratulations to JMc, LB, SW, SP and EB for completing the Race for Life in 29 minutes and well done to them all for their perseverance throughout the year to prepare for this event. Thanks also to JLO for encouraging them in the first place.

Art and Food teacher. We were successful in appointing an Art/ Food teacher for September and are looking forward to working with Mrs Bell.

Congratulations to CM for being appointed to Centre Manager from September.

Even Better If

This week has a lot of cover again, due to TEAM TEACH over the next three days. Please see JMc for details of changes to timetables for Tuesday and Wednesday at Richmond House.

Growth Mindset at its best. The culmination of training since September. The sun shone down on Team RH at the weekend as they completed the Race for Life for Cancer Research UK
