

Privacy Notice (How we use Pupil Information)

The categories of pupil information that we collect, hold and share include:

- Personal information (such as name, unique pupil number and address);
- Characteristics (such as ethnicity, language, nationality, country of birth and free school meal eligibility);
- Attendance information (such as sessions attended, number of absences and absence reasons);
- Assessment Information;
- Medical Information;
- Special Educational Needs Information;
- Social and Emotional Information;
- Post-16 Information

Why we collect and use this information

We use the pupil data:

- to support pupil learning;
- to provide learning experiences outside the classroom
- to monitor and report on pupil progress;
- to enter pupils for national assessment e.g. GCSEs
- to provide appropriate pastoral care;
- to assess the quality of our services;
- to comply with the law regarding data sharing
- to safeguard pupils
- to prevent crime

The lawful basis on which we use this information

We collect and use pupil information under the General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR), May 2018, as follows:

- Article 6(1)(c) - Necessary for compliance with a legal obligation
- Article 6(1)(d) - Necessary to protect the vital interests (life) of a data subject or another person
- Article 6 (1) (e) - Necessary for the performance of a task carried out in the public interest or in the exercise of official authority vested in the controller
- Article 9 (2) (b) - Necessary to meet obligations under employment, social security or social protection law, or a collective agreement;
- Article 9(2)(f) - For the establishment, exercise or defence of legal claims or court judicial capacity
- Article 9(2)(i), - For public health e.g. protecting against serious cross-border threats to health or ensuring high standards of healthcare & medicinal products or medical devices

Collecting pupil information

Whilst the majority of pupil information you provide to us is mandatory, some of it is provided to us on a voluntary basis. In order to comply with the General Data Protection Regulation, we will inform you whether you are required to provide certain pupil information to us or if you have a choice in this.

Storing pupil data

We hold pupil data for 35 years from the pupil's date of birth.

Who we share pupil information with

We routinely share pupil information with:

- Mainstream schools;
- Colleges that the pupil's attend after leaving us;
- the local authority;
- the Department for Education (DfE)
- the NHS
- Inspira
- Cumbria Education Business Partnership
- Youth Offending Service
- Work experience providers
- Transport providers

Why we share pupil information

We do not share information about our pupils with anyone without consent unless the law and our policies allow us to do so.

We share pupils' data with the Department for Education (DfE) on a statutory basis. This data sharing underpins school funding and educational attainment policy and monitoring.

We are required to pass information about our pupils to the Department for Education (DfE) under regulation 4 of The Education (Information About Individual Pupils) (England) Regulations 2013.

Data collection requirements:

To find out more about the data collection requirements placed on us by the Department for Education (for example; via the school census), go to www.gov.uk/education/data-collection-and-censuses-for-schools.

Youth support services

Pupils aged 13+

Once our pupils reach the age of 13, we also pass pupil information to our local authority and / or provider of youth support services as they have responsibilities in relation to the education or training of 13-19 year olds under section 507B of the Education Act 1996.

This enables them to provide services as follows:

- youth support services;
- careers advisers.

A parent or guardian can request that only their child's name, address and date of birth is passed to their local authority or provider of youth support services by informing us. This right is transferred to the child / pupil once he/she reaches the age 16.

The National Pupil Database (NPD)

The NPD is owned and managed by the Department for Education and contains information about pupils in schools in England. It provides invaluable evidence on educational performance to inform independent research, as well as studies commissioned by the Department. It is held in electronic format for statistical purposes. This information is securely collected from a range of sources including schools, local authorities and awarding bodies.

We are required by law, to provide information about our pupils to the DfE as part of statutory data collections such as the school census and early years' census. Some of this information is then stored in the NPD. The law that allows this is the Education (Information About Individual Pupils) (England) Regulations 2013.

To find out more about the NPD, go to www.gov.uk/government/publications/national-pupil-database-user-guide-and-supporting-information.

The department may share information about our pupils from the NPD with third parties who promote the education or well-being of children in England by:

- conducting research or analysis;
- producing statistics;
- providing information, advice or guidance.

The Department has robust processes in place to ensure the confidentiality of our data is maintained and there are stringent controls in place regarding access and use of the data. Decisions on whether DfE releases data to third parties are subject to a strict approval process and based on a detailed assessment of:

- who is requesting the data;
- the purpose for which it is required;
- the level and sensitivity of data requested; and
- the arrangements in place to store and handle the data.

To be granted access to pupil information, organisations must comply with strict terms and conditions covering the confidentiality and handling of the data, security arrangements and retention and use of the data.
